WOOL

Wool from the sheep goes direct to Belgium and Roumania, where you market your wool at Horn Bros. mill. The wool that kept the sheep warm last winter, will keep the little Belgians and Roumanians warm this winter, after it has been made into cloth at Horn Bros. Mills, where thousands of pounds of Canadian fleece wool is being manufactured into cloth and blankets daily. This vast consumption of wool is itself a credit to a market and higher prices.

Wool is a valuable asset and it is well worth the time it takes to market it. After an article is produced, the next important thing is the selling of it, then you have time to consider the market. Market your wool direct to the manufacturers where you will receive the actual value for your product. Horn Bros. have been buying and manufacturing wool for 50 years in this district.

Remember your wool will be weighed on self-balancing self-registering scales. The actual weight is indicated by the hand which points to the figures on the dial. By this method you receive payment for every pound of wool you have.

The governor has promised an investigation into the deaths in the riot, in establishing responsibility for the deaths in the neighborhood, where the deaths occurred, in rioting.

AMATEUR PLAY AT CAMBRAY

"Winning of Berry,"
Presented by Cambray Amateurs.

The much heralded production by the Cambray Amateur Theatrical Club, "The Winning of Berry," on Thursday evening, May 23, was a howling success.

From the time the curtain was rung up at 8:15 till the finale of the last scene of the act it 11:30 the capacity house was kept stamping on its feet with interest.

A wholesome play, interesting, amusing and moralistic, by rapable amateur artists, appropriate, careful, smart, and lustrated and accompanied by the well known local orchestra gave the large audience their best money's worth that could be given.

Miss Ruth Carter, as leading lady, "Berry," the breaker of all bars, attracted her role with unflinching heart and grace. Miss Joan Watson as Tony Grey, her dam, and Miss Jean Watson as Amy, Berry's sister, were equally effective. Mr. Arthur Watson as the missing man, "Doctor Brown," really was his way at the hands of the "Winning of Berry," and it was his performance, particularly in the heart of Berry with unalloyed success. Mrs. A. E. Thoms and Mr. J. H. Thoms as Hannah and Abraham Brown were right there with the "Winning of Berry." Mr. J. H. Thoms, as the "Winning of Berry," was a magnificent creature, and her son, "Doctor Brown," was a magnificent creature, and her son, "Doctor Brown," was a magnificent creature.

Mr. A. E. Thoms as a companion to Mr. Berry, was a magnificent creature, and her son, "Doctor Brown," was a magnificent creature, and her son, "Doctor Brown," was a magnificent creature.

Sign in Day Event.

Address were received by the British Empire delegation to the Peace Conference at 2 o'clock this afternoon that the German National Assembly met in Weimar at noon, and that the new Cabinet would declare a vote of confidence.

The address said that afterward a note would be forwarded to Versailles asking the allies and some signed powers, first by waiting their answer for the surrender of the former Emperor, and second, for Germany's acknowledgment in writing of her responsibility for the war.

It was added that no matter what the allies reply the Peace Treaty would be signed.

For Von-Furthner's Article.

Weimar, June 22.—It is announced that the decision of the Government to sign the Peace Treaty has been decided before the National Assembly today.

The allies and associated powers have decided to reject the German people's desire from their consideration in the peace conference, without the possibility being considered, if the allies are not satisfied with the German Empire, German neutrality has been completely violated and neither the economic and financial bodies imposed upon the German people have any possible.

Here further outlined.

The decision of the land and the people has brought on together the refusal not to refuse to operations on our side to defend to the risk of leaving Germany to prey in a state of anarchy, with government and the people of salvation. You will believe that we are not here to lead for the interests of our own people, and still less to satisfy our ambitions.

We are here for the peace of the world, to save that which is alive.

The Imperial Government in contrast that despite all resolutions of confidence it is in the eyes of the world and the people a state of anarchy, namely, to make any treaty a decision after the examination of the facts and a majority without an arm on part.

Declaring that by signing this treaty under reserves the government would be there in order to sign the German Empire from a new and degrading of national unity is further recognition, starvation for the women and an unmerciful lack of German prisoners, first Emperor continued.

Half Holiday

Commencing June 18 this store will close every Wednesday, during June, July and August, at 12.30.

Women who know good hats will not need to be told what those are worth, although we think it is proper for us to tell you that the average worth of the hats offered in this sale is twice to-morrow's milking price.

In many cases a single flower or single leaf is interesting in worth as much as the hat itself.

There are hats of fine linen, broad Japanese brims, genuine Milan hemp Chinese straw, and many others. Some with crowns of velvet, some to match, or in contrast. There are small, snagging hats, satins and ruffled brims. In fact, every style that is fashionable is included here.

Hats for the vacation trip or the next two months of summer hat-wearing. Extraordinary values. So we urge you not to let this opportunity slip by.

Very Special for Tomorrow
Women's Japanese Parasols at $1.48.

We have secured a limited number of these hats at a very low price and for tomorrow we shall sell them on the same basis. We consider them so good, that we believe it is not necessary to say much about them. Just come in to look at them, and see how becoming they are. These are, perhaps, the most beautiful hats of the season. Adapt themselves to every woman. At this price they are well worth buying.

A Great Sale of High Grade
Trimmed Hats at $1.49 to $10.00.
